IT Job Market
Lower Fairfield County

Our people make IT possible.

E.J. Monks

Ryan Burns

Overview:

- Where did we get this data from?
- Local IT market data
    - Unemployment
    - Popular Skill Sets
    - Contract v. Permanent
- Linux skill sets and data
    - Supply and demand – Hiring indicator
    - Compensation
        - Permanent v. Contract
        - Vertical/Specialization
- Factors

How did we source this data?

- TEKsystems local clients – 400+ clients and 2170+ placements last year in NY/NJ/CT
- Gartner survey's
- Partnership with Careerbuilder
- Wage scale on VMS accounts
- US Bureau of Labor

Local IT Market Data

- Unemployment:
  - National – 6.1%   Local – 6.7%
  - National IT – 2.7%   Local IT – 1.8%

- Total IT workforce - 16,960 Permanent – 14,416 Temp – 2,544

- Network/Systems Admins and Engineer's:
  - Total – 1,460 Permanent – 1,241 Temp 219
  - Density – Strong

Linux Admin/Engineer's

- Supply & Demand – Based on a 50 mile radius from Norwalk
  - Demand – 3600 Job postings where there is Linux involved
  - Supply – 1274 Candidates who has some knowledge of Linux
  - Hiring Indicator – 43

- Compensation:
  - Average Salary - $106,784 High - $140k+ Low - $60k
  - Average Temp wage - $57/hr High - $85/hr Low - $45/hr

- Top 3 Job Titles:
  - 1. Systems Administrator
  - 2. Systems Engineer
  - 3. Linux Engineer

Factors

- Local Supply/Demand
- Level of skill and/or Years of experience
- Industry
- Need (Time Frame)
- Need (Skill set)
- Benefits (Full time/Permanent)
- Company Size/Status
- Education Level
- Location/Relocation
- Competition (Internal, External)